INTERROGATORIES OF JUDGMENT
CREDITOR UNITED STATES OF AMERICA

Pursuant to Rules 69 and 33 of the Federal Rules of Civil Procedure [and 28 U.S.C. § 3015], the judgment creditor, the United States of America, submits the following interrogatories to the judgment debtor. Each interrogatory must be answered separately and fully in writing under oath within 30 days from the date of service of these interrogatories.

1. State your date of birth and your full home and business addresses and telephone numbers.

2. State the full name, address, and telephone number of your employer, if any; the period of time you have been employed there; and the nature of your present occupation.

3. Have you received any money or other items of value for services performed by you or goods or merchandise sold or leased by you within the last two years? If so, state the name, address, and telephone number of each person or entity paying you such money or other item of value, and the date and amount of such payments.

4. Do you have any interest in any corporation or partnership? If so, state the name and address of each such corporation or partnership and the names, addresses and telephone numbers of all other shareholders or partners.

5. State the full name, address, and telephone number of every bank and other financial institution with which you have done business at any time during the past four years. In addition, for each bank or other financial institution:

(a) state the account number of every savings account and checking account in which you have had an interest or upon which you have had the authority to sign checks or make withdrawals;

(b) state whether such bank or financial institution has made any loans to you within the past four years and, if so, the amount and date of each loan, and whether you submitted a financial statement in applying for such loan; and

(c) state whether you rent a safety deposit box in your name or in any other name. If so, state the name and address of the bank at which the safety deposit box is maintained, the name and address of the person under whose name the box is rented, and list and describe in detail the contents of the box as of the date on which these interrogatories were served (as set forth in the attached certificate of service).
